

PERSCH OF WINDSOR TRUST DEAL MEMORY IS SUED FOR DIVORCE

Former Wall Street Friend Is Witness Against Him and Names Co-Respondents

Donald L. Persch, the former Wall Street broker who was indicted in 1910 in connection with the disappearance of $100,000 worth of corporate stock owned by E. Augustus Heinze which Heinze had given to the Windsor Trust Company as collateral for a loan, and since has been in trouble several times in connection with checks, is in a fair way to lose the young wife who so faithfully stuck by him through his earlier difficulties. Supreme Court Justice Greenleaf to-day took under advisement Mrs. Helen Huey Persch's suit for divorce.

Mrs. Persch, who once had fashionable apartments on Riverside Drive and never wanted for money when her husband was at the height of his career in the Street, is to-day supporting herself by dressmaking. Two years ago she appealed to her parents, wealthy Philadelphia people, for aid, and she claims even to ask alimony of the husband who is alleged to have deserted her for other women when his luck began to turn.

Mrs. Persch was so nervous on the witness stand that she could scarcely answer the questions of her attorney. It was left to Walter Althouse, also a one-time Wall Street man, to tell of Persch's unfaithfulness. According to Althouse, Persch and a woman known as Marjorie Thann were together in an apartment in Forty-sixth street early in July, 1912. Persch, he testified, telephoned him to come to the house and bring some money to him.

Several months later, Althouse said, he found the former broker at the Seaborn Inn, Coney Island, with Mabel Cahoon, and in November of the same year he saw him with Florence Straub at a Broadway apartment.

Persch escaped prison in the Windsor Trust deal when the jury which tried him disagreed. In 1912 he, with four others, was indicted on a charge of selling to William G. Shanks, of Springfield, Mass., for $15,000 a block of mining stock which later turned out to be worthless. Later he made two trips to Europe with representatives of the District Attorney's office, helping to run down those associated with him in the mining stock deal. A month ago, while living at the Hotel Ansonia, he was arrested on a charge of passing worthless checks on local hotels.

Mrs. Persch lives at No. 36 East Thirty-fifth street. She and her husband have been separated more than a year.

NOT CARRANZA'S SPOKESMAN

Agent for First Chief Says Pequeña's Views Are His Own.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Rafael Zubizarain Capmany, confidential agent of Gen. Carranza here, said at the Mexican Embassy to-day that the statement issued at San Antonio last night by Roberto V. Pasquel, attacking George C. Carothers, special agent of the State Department in Mexico, had not been authorized by Gen. Carranza, but was a personal expression from Mr. Pasquel. The latter was at one time Washington representative of Carranza, said Mr. Zubizarain, but now holds no official position under his Government. State Department officials to-day had received no copy of the Pasquel statement and Mr. Zubizarain, who handles the business of the Carranza Government here, said he had no intention of bringing it to the attention of the American Government.

Belgian Relief Fund Now $55,000. WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The Belgian Relief Fund has reached $55,000, according to an announcement to-day by the Belgian Minister, Mr. Havemann. Two contributions of $10,000 have been secured during the last ten days through the efforts of Lars Anderson, former Minister to Belgium and head of the Boston committee.

We make every part of the piano and player-piano in our own factory, and we are absolutely certain that for the grade and class of instruments we under-sell anything on the market.

Sweet toned, durable SCHUBERT. Guaranteed for life. Pianos $125 up. Player-Pianos $265 up. Prices are just now lower than they will be for several years.

Afternoon & Evening Dresses Very Moderately Priced

VARIOUS materials lend themselves charmingly to the new dress modes, but none better than the lustrous rich velvets or velveteens. This fact is emphasized by the illustration.

Fine Velveteen Redingote Dresses, at $19.74

This is an exceptionally low price for this stylish dress, considering the splendid materials and fine workmanship. The underskirt, semi-bodice and sleeves are of good quality black satin. The skirt is a circular flare tunic, gracefully fitted on hips with a yoke; white faille silk collar and cuffs. The front fastens with satin covered buttons.

Afternoon Dresses of Satin, $25.75

A smart combination is that of satin and either Georgette Crepe or silk net, as featured in this costume. Satin fashions the foundation. The tunic is of the crepe or net, also the long transparent sleeves. The wide girde and collar are of satin; small cluster of flowers at the collar. Colors for dress—navy, black, taupe and wistaria.

Dainty Dancing Frocks, $29.75

Made of fine chiffon and shadow lace. The pointed over drapery of lace falls over an airy chiffon ruffled skirt. The bodice is of chiffon, inset with lace. The wide draped girde of chiffon has a pretty side trimming of French roses.

Gabardine and Serge Dresses Very Specially Priced, $14.74

For quick clearance several of these attractive cloth Dresses combined with satin, were taken from regular stock. Only a few of a kind. A remarkable low price offer!

THREE Attractive BLOUSES

Specially Priced

Each Style Pictured

$2.89

BLOUSE of Shadow Lace

is shown at left. It is mounted over flesh-color chiffon; very dainty and becoming is the high-wired lace collar, ruffled with net. The net ruffles continue down front of Blouse, then opens to show a vest effect of flesh-color chiffon. The Vest is toned with a black bow and black buttons. A graceful lace-trimmed ruffle is at the hand.

BLOUSE of Soft, Lustrous Crepe de Chine

As sketched at upper right. It is inset with broad bands of effective lace, closely resembling filet. The soft flat collar of self material is sprayed with dainty embroidery and edged with lace; set-in sleeves with lace-edged cuff.

THIRD FLOOR, 34TH STREET.

BLOUSE of White Wash Satin

Is shown in lower illustration. The long, transparent sleeves are of fine shadow lace. The same lace is attractively employed at the back of the high, close-fitting satin collar. Stitched shoulder straps are trimmed with satin-covered buttons; satin buttons fasten Blouse at the front.
